Approximately 49,500 to 68,234
Buildable Square Feet

100' of Frontage

Area Description

West Chelsea has become an emerging fashionable neighborhood and a new center for art galleries, boutiques, clubs and residential development. West Chelsea was a neglected New York City neighborhood until galleries forced out of SoHo due to high rents began moving into West Chelsea between 10th and 11th Avenue. This area has become the epicenter of New York City art and is now known as the "Gallery District". Over 250 art galleries have moved to West Chelsea in the last 10 years.

Highline Overview

ACCESS Safe, ample, ADA-compliant access will be provided at periodic locations along the Line. 'Slow' stairs will bring visitors up gradually, emphasizing the transition from the busy street, through the rugged structure of the High Line, to the green landscape above.

Highline Overview

FRAMEWORK A comprehensive vision for the High Line includes tranquil landscape features (called out in lower row) and flexible areas for gathering or other programs (upper row).
